REQUEST FOR LETTERS OF INTEREST THE NEHEMIAH INITIATIVE

The City is soliciting Letters of Interest (LOI) on behalf of the City of Alexandria Mayor's Office to obtain qualified facilitators for the Nehemiah Initiative. The initiative will seek opportunities to improve the City of Alexandria by increasing community involvement, coordinating desirable community activities, developing community partnerships and improving the diversity of key and support players, as well as its key contributors in the supply or production chains.

The Administration is seeking experienced practitioners/facilitators with an interest in development and wealth creation within the city of Alexandria. Each minister/pastor should:

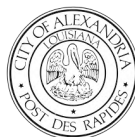

- Have present or prior experience with Community building and community health.
- Understand the current Institutional Infrastructure and be willing to discuss what is not working.
- Be willing to use faith-based, good ideas without forcing a particular faith.
- Direct, hands-on experience as a lead minister/pastor with implementation of a capital project or social program of scale or that is evidently scalable.
- Evidence of financial capacity or a proper business plan to gain capacity (including with assistance).
- Evident excellence and success in ministerial stewardship and/or longevity.
- Direct, hands-on experience as a lead minister/pastor with implementation of a capital project or social program of scale or that is evidently scalable.
- Objective measures of success, such as awards, commendations, and data resulting from previous projects.
- Detailed information on the qualifications and relevant experience, listing all professional degrees, certifications, awards, and commendations.

The City of Alexandria will only consider letters/applications for projects that serve the Alexandria community and its residents, with priority given to organizations and projects that are located in the city of Alexandria.

LOI's may be accepted on an ongoing basis until closed at the discretion of City administration.

Interested parties should submit questions and/or LOI along with the attached form to Stacey West (Stacey.West@cityofalex.com).
